DROWNED .- Mr. A. Shuggard was drowned last night, while bathing in the Cumberland. with a party of friends. He had been for some time employed as a clerk in the dry goods store of A. B. & A. C. BEECH, and was from East Tennessee.

For the Daily Patriot. A voice from Tyree. Tyree Springs, July 27, 1858.

Messes Epirors: You good people of Nashville have certainly forgotton that there is such a cool, delightful spot as dear old Tyree Springs. While you are battling with the musquetoes, saturating handkerchief after handkerchief with the profuse perspiration that debilitates the whole system, we are enjoying the luxury of unbroken rest, beneath a good blanket, lulled to sleep, by the rustling of the leaves, and only awakened by the full-toned bell telling us that another day is before us. Why, my friends, if from no other cause, we Nashville people should love this spot for the sake of olden times. How few of us, but can recall to mind some sweet memories connected with this place! Who of us, but can look into the secret chambers of his or her heart and remember some loved one. who caused our souls to thrill with joy beneath the very shade of these old trees! Ah the trees are very silent now to the passer by; but each leaf whispers of some by-gone hours to those who, years ago, lingered beneath them. As children, how have we loved the old galleries, in spite of the remonstrances of the older folks, arging us to stay our truant teet and spare their nerves! As lovers, how have we wandered from place to place, seeking some quiet spot where we could unburden our hearts of their doubts and fears! As mothers, how have we sat and gazed with pride upon the fair daughters, cherished but to be resigned to another's care, ere the bud had fully blown! As invalid, how have we loved old Tyree, with her streams of pure water, giving new life to the system almost

Then, with all these memories, why allow a new love to cause such forgetfulness of the old? Beersheba and Lookout have their advantages, which are doubtless many; but we contend that for the citizens of Nashville none have the same claim to their patronage as gree. Acessible to business, the very best air and water, excellent accommodations in every way, attentive servants, and an abundance of them, a most amiable hostess, of whom we cannot say too much, a host whose chief pleasure seems the enjoyment of his guests; what more could we desire in a watering place? But to the pith of the matter. If the appetite of the epicore cannot be satisfied at the table Mr. MOSHER provides we promise to recall all we have said, and confess that we know nothing of the good things of life. But independent of the dainties we have the very best bread, butter and milk imaginable, which are at last the cream of good living. Without them, no table is palatable; and with them, no table can be incomplete.

As to the company, modesty forbids us to say too much; but if it is limited in quantity, the quality is "of the first brand." But we want a good number, that our host and hostess may know that we appreciate their efforts to please. So send them up, Messes Editors: all ye hungry, thirsty souls come and share with us the balmy air of Tyree! "Jordan and his band" are in waiting for you. The moonlights are soft enough for lovers' souls; and some we know are waiting but the presence of "their liege lords" to make them supremely happy. So come one, come all.

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE AND LADY .- "Aga," of the Baltimore San, says: "A letter has been received by a gentleman of this city from ex-President Pierce. He states that he left Funchal in a sailing vessel on the 12th June, and anchored in the Tagus on the 20th, During the voyage Mrs. Pierce suffered severely from sea-sickness, but recuperated rapidly aft r being installed in comfortable quarters. During his sojourn at Madeira (which was eminently gratifying) Mrs. Pierce, though feeble, was enabled to ride out and enjoy the invigorating influences of the balmy air almost every day. He was to leave Lisbon for Cadiz about the 2d July, thence in ten days for Marseilles, thence for Vevay in Switzerland, to enjoy the last of Summer and early Autumn, upon the shores of Lake

TELEGRAPH COMPANY SUED FOR DAMAGES .-Mr. A. Camp, of Louisville, Ky., made an offer by telegraph to a party in Cincinnati for a lot of whisky at a specified sum. In the transmission of the dispatch over the wires a mistake of a quarter cent was made, by increasing the price offered for it by Camp, and the party at Cincinnati sold it. The whisky was shipped and Camp discovered the mistake. He thereupon brought suit against the Telegraph Company for the difference. The Company, in their answer, plend the printed terms and conditions which head their messages, to the effect that the Company do not hold themselves responsible for mistakes in the transmission of messages unless the same are repeated, for which one-half the original price is charged. The courts sustained this will be found beyond all praise, and needs only a trial

The school directors of Boston have ruled out nearly all the books now in use. The geographies, spelling books, readers, arithmetics, histories, &c., are all materially changed. Warren's Geographies, Swan's History of the United States, Colburn's and Exton's Arithmetics, Hillard's Readers, and Wordester's Spelling Book are the text books to be used for the future.

EMIGRATION .- The number of emigrants arrived at New York city, for the week ending 21st inst., was 2,307; making a total of 40,-561 since the first of the year. The arrivals for the corresponding period in 1857 numbered 107,237.

AN INVALUABLE REMEDY .- When Dr. Bragg first commenced experimenting in the production of this invaluable remedy, now so generally known a the "ARCTIC LINIMENT," he little dreamed of the brilliant success destined to crown his labor. H. sonly idea was to pro duce a liniment for the benefit of the Arctic explorers under Dr. Kane, intended exclusively for their use, and adapted to the cure of all those diseases incident to their adventurous life. Such, however, were found to be the merits of the preparation, that Dr. Bragg felt it his duty to try its victors in other latitudes. The result has been most happy. Long con- | i ficates testify. tinued cases of Rheumatism, which had been given up by numerous physicians, yielded at once to its carative properties. The most agonizing cases of Neuralgia, Paralysis, and Gout, were relieved in an incredibly brief pe riod of time; and in short, in all diseases where liniments are proper to be used, Brago's Aucric Liniment has proved itself

New Orleans Markets. New Ostrans, July 23, P. M.
COTTON—The week opened with a rather quiet market for cotton, with few desirable lists and extreme pretensions on the part of holders. Up to Wednesday evening barely 4,600 bales were sold, including 1,800 on Saturday, 200 on Monday, 300 on Tuesday, and 2,300 on Wednesday, prices generally being very full for the medium and better qualities, without any quotable alteration. Yesterday about 1,000 bales changed hands, and to-day's sales were confined to 500, making the entire business of the week 6,100 bales, taken for Great Britain, the Continent of Europe and North.
